

Revelations 5:12 In a loud voice they sang: “Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him.

James 3:13-18 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom.

But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. Such “wisdom” does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil. For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. Peacemakers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness.

Dear Heavenly Father:

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain; You are the source of all true power and wealth and wisdom and strength; to You be all honor and glory and praise!”

In the continual uncertainty of our life on earth, from the global events of this world to our own personal encounters and issues, we pray Lord for your discernment and abundant wisdom each day. Please cleanse our hearts of bitter envy and selfish ambition, and relieve us of our anxiety and fear; fill us with Your peace and everlasting love.

We ask you Lord to provide us with a clear understanding of Your will for our life, so that as we face our daily trials and temptations, our thoughts, words and actions will be pleasing to You. May we know with certainty that You are always with us, and that we are following the path that You have prepared for us.

Please give us Your Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that we may know You better!

In Christ's name we pray,

Amen
