Abba, Father,

Thank you for the opportunities that we have to teach ourselves and our children to know you, to love you, and to grow into a relationship with you. Thank you especially for the people that you have blessed and gifted with the ability and patience to work with our children and to follow your command to feed your lambs.

Be with these teachers and give them wisdom and protection as they teach and lead our children. Be with the professional teachers during this summer break. Refresh and renew them so that they can continue to instill a love for you in our children and in us.

In Jesus precious name we pray. Amen
