“Teen Challenge: Changing Lives By The Power Of Christ”

On Sunday, October 16th, Minnesota Adult and Teen Challenge will be giving a free concert at Redeemer Lutheran Church during the 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. worship services.

We are thrilled to welcome this amazing organization! Adult and Teen Challenge offers Christ-centered, faith-based solutions to youth, adults, and families who struggle with life-controlling problems including drugs and alcohol.

One of the success stories of Adult and Teen Challenge is Amber, pictured at right: “I always believed my addiction was going to kill me. My meth use brought me to jails, prison, and treatment centers. Death seemed like the next stop on a bleak journey. I heard of MnTC from friends, and I knew I needed a program focused on God. After two weeks of heavy using I ended up in jail and eventually at MnTC. Here I met Jesus and my beliefs began to change. God transformed my heart and renewed my mind. I went on to graduate from the Leadership Institute and now work here as program staff. This summer I married a fellow MnTC graduate, and God continues to bless me beyond my imagination.”

We will be hearing many stories like Valerie’s on Sunday, October 16th, at both services. Along with testimonies of God’s amazing grace, the Adult and Teen Challenge choir will inspire us with heartfelt songs of worship.

This will be an unforgettable day – an awesome day to bring a friend to church who may be looking for answers, or who needs an encouraging touch. Jesus will be present in a mighty way through testimony and song.

A potluck lunch follows the 10:45 a.m. service as we break bread and fellowship with the members of Adult and Teen Challenge.

In Christ,

Pastor Steve
I recently read an educational article which refers to the Marigold Effect for First Year Teachers: finding a good supporting teacher to stick close to can make or break you.

I adapted this theory to the Christian life: By finding the Godly, positive, supportive, energetic people and sticking close to them, you can improve your life. That’s what we do here at Redeemer Lutheran Church and School – offer you opportunities to be next to marigolds and become one yourself. Our Christian day school, Bible studies, Wednesday night Faith and Family Night, and the many other opportunities you’ll note in this and other newsletters will give you a chance to surround yourself with marigolds.

Just like a young seedling growing in a garden, Godly thriving depends largely on who you plant yourself next to. Many experienced gardeners (including myself) follow a concept called companion planting: placing certain vegetables and plants near each other to improve growth for one or both plants. Among companion plants, the marigold is one of the best: It protects a wide variety of plants from pests and harmful weeds. If you plant a marigold beside most any garden vegetable, that vegetable will grow big and strong and healthy, protected and encouraged by its marigold.

Marigolds exist in Redeemer Lutheran Church and School as well – encouraging, supporting and nurturing people on their way to maturity. I encourage you to find at least one marigold and stay close to them and you will grow. Find more than one and you will positively thrive.

You will have to seek them out. You can identify them by the way they congratulate you on arrival, or just by how you feel when you’re with them: Are you calmer, more hopeful? Excited to get started on a task? If you feel good around this person, chances are they have some marigold qualities.

Once you’ve identified your marigolds, make an effort to spend time with them. Having a hard day? Go to your marigolds. Confused by something? Go to your marigolds. Make the effort. It’s worth the trouble.

But, beware of the walnut trees. While seeking out your marigolds, you’ll need to take note of the walnut trees. Successful gardeners avoid planting vegetables anywhere near walnut trees, which give off a toxic substance that can inhibit growth, wilt, and ultimately kill nearby vegetable plants.

And sadly, walnut trees will be abundant. They may not seem dangerous at first. In fact, some walnut trees may appear to be good, but here are some signs that you should keep your distance from these people: their take on life is negative,

On Sunday, October 2nd, Pastor Steve will begin teaching a new course during the Adult Education Hour at 9:30am called The Story.

The Story is a fresh, effective way to study and understand the great themes of the Bible. Using selections from the Scriptures (The Story: Scripture Book) condensed into 31 chronological chapters, this course takes us from Genesis through Revelation. Each class begins with a 10-minute teaching video, followed by discussion from The Story Participant’s Guide, which is filled with time lines, discussion questions, lists of Bible characters, charts of biblical events, and more.

Cost of the course materials is $10.

What a great way to study the Word together in a fresh way!

Come to the auditorium and join your brothers and sisters on this journey through Scripture.

REBRANDING THE DAY SCHOOL

As a part of our Redeemer 2018 Vision, one of our Objectives is to “Grow our Christian Day School,” and a key strategy to allow for this growth is its effective marketing and advertising.

A forum to discuss our day school rebranding was held on Thursday evening September 22. The Day School Board presented a plan that included changing the name of our day school from “Redeemer Lutheran School” to “Redeemer Christian Academy.” The board mentioned that similar name changes have been made to other LCMS schools, with positive results, at a time when many Lutheran day schools are shutting down. The proposed name was well received.

The forum was well attended and led to a productive discussion. There was a consensus that we need to maintain our current LCMS teachings, and make it clear that our day school is a Ministry of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

There was also a brief discussion on modest improvements to the school facilities, along with a number of other suggestions to help grow our day school enrollment.

Our ultimate goal is to attract the attention of more potential families and students by creating a cohesive and consistent marketing and communications program, which showcases both our excellence in education and appeals to a broader audience. This proposed rebranding effort will also be a good opportunity to enhance our day school signage, and update our outdated marketing materials and website.

There is no intention of changing our day school’s current LCMS teaching, message, curriculum or mission. Our mission is to equip students for their journey on the road through this life, to eternal life with our Lord. Our “Teachings for a Lifetime” help students grow in learning, integrity, faith and excellence to become equipped disciples of Jesus.

Any formal changes will be subject to approval at a following Voters’ Meeting conducted in October.

If you have any comments or concerns, please contact any of Redeemer’s Day School Board members. Finally, to keep the costs low, we will be relying primarily on volunteer effort. Please let us know if you would like to help with facilities work or marketing efforts.

Please pray that our Lord will provide His guidance and bless this endeavor.
